

Dolce&Gabbana Has Launched an Exclusive London Pop-Up

Covent Garden, the home of experiential retail and unbeatable festive experiences, today reveals that Dolce&Gabbana has launched an exclusive London pop-up in the heart of the Piazza, as part of the estate's wide-ranging festive shopping and dining experiences.

The special Holiday Market from the luxury Italian fashion house brings colour and typical symbols of Sicilian folklore to the Piazza, with the super-Instagrammable retail pop-up now open until 15th January 2023. The Italian luxury and lifestyle brand will host a Holiday Market including food and beverages, Dolce&Gabbana Casa gift ideas, ready-to-wear fashion, sneakers and an exclusive Covent-Garden-only t-shirt with a London print. The pop-up will also include unique products from Dolce&Gabbana partners Fiasconaro, Donnafugata, Pasta Di Martino and Baci Perugina. As part of the partnership, Covent Garden's Insta-famous swing will also be given a festive Italian makeover by the brand.

The rest of the Covent Garden estate has launched its magical Christmas celebrations with a dazzling festive display and programme of exciting events. Visitors can experience the third year of London's Winter Warmer Mulled Wine Festival, exciting family photo moments, weekly shopping evenings with gospel choir performances, festive performances at the Royal Opera House, ultimate festive dining experiences and much more.

International News

Dockers is Expanding its Retail Footprint

International News

Scandic Hotels has Appointed Thérèse Cedercreutz as New CCO

Americas News

Bad Ass Coffee of Hawaii Brewing Expansion

Americas News

Target Unveils New Format Store

News

Italian Pasta Lab Spagnoletti Opens in King's Cross

ABOUT US

Paramount Publications Ltd
All Rights Reserved - Copyright © 2004 - 2022

Contact us: info@rii.uk.com

FOLLOW US

